

May 11

Local society to honour canine heroes

By LORI LEDINGHAM
Special Features

The Beautiful Joe Heritage Society will host a special ceremony on May 11, 2002 to honour the heroic efforts of the canine units involved in search and rescue efforts at the World Trade Center and the Pentagon. To be held at Beautiful Joe Park in Meaford, the event will include the unveiling of a monument dedicated to the many canine units who aided in the rescue efforts following the attacks on September 11, 2001.

The Beautiful Joe Society decided to honour Sirius and all of the search and rescue units with a tribute in Beautiful Joe Park.

David Lim and Sirius were a team, night and day.

The Society has invited Constable David Lim of the Port Authority Police of New York and New Jersey to participate in the unveiling ceremony. Constable Lim's canine partner, Sirius, was one of

Welcome to the Home of

Beautiful Joe